

Mr Virgil "Doc" Dee Holliday

February 10, 1949 - November 14, 2018

Virgil Dee "Doc" Holliday

2/10/49 to 11/14/18

Was married to Pam for 39 years. Worked for AT&T. Was a road disc jockey for KOMA and KOOL for 5 years. However, he was a DJ for a total of 30 years. He ran his own mobile road show playing at weddings, birthday parties and classic car shows. He loved music, to joke around with everyone, giving everyone a hard time, liked to work on cars when he was younger and loved his model trains. He loved old westerns starring John Wayne, Clint Eastwood, James Stewart, Kirk Douglas and Gary Cooper, to state a few.

He is survived by his wife, Pamela Holliday, sister, Hazel Maddox, daughter, Gail Davis, Son-in-Law, Richard Davis Sr., granddaughter, Jessica Willis, grandson, Richard Davis Jr., 2-great granddaughters, Kaelynn Willis and Keegan Willis, lots of nieces, nephews and friends

He will be greatly missed.

Cemetery

Events

Velma Cemetery

NOV
21

Funeral

10:00AM

Velma, OK,

Candlewood Chapel

315 S. Sooner Rd., Midwest City, OK, US, 73110

Comments

“ My husband and I use to listen to "Doc" on Koma Radio Station. We have known him for years. I remember when, he and Pam and his brother-in-law and his wife would meet up at the old Skyline restaurant on SE 15th street in Oklahoma City. They would always set in the big curved booth in the center room which was a smoking room at the time. I also remember them going to Madison's restaurant on SE 29th Street in Del City. Both my husband and I always liked him. Gordon (Mustang) and Linda (Amazon) Kiselburgh

Linda Kiselburgh - November 21, 2018 at 12:22 AM

“ 52 files added to the album LifeTributes

Ford Funeral Service - November 20, 2018 at 04:29 PM

“ I remember growing up and when we would see cute guys in a car next to us, he would blast the music and start yelling and making all kinds of noise to embarrass us. My face would turn four shades of red and down in the floorboard I would go. Can't help but laugh when I remember that now.

Gail Davis - November 20, 2018 at 03:59 PM